

LEEP PRECISION™ Integrated System Procedure Preferred Equipment List

For optimal performance and patient safety, the LEEP PRECISION™ Integrated System is intended for use only with the CooperSurgical LEEP PRECISION accessories. These components are specifically designed and validated for compatibility with the system. Use of non-authorized accessories is not recommended, as they have not been tested for use with this system and may result in unsafe operation of the unit. See below for a preferred list of CooperSurgical LEEP accessories and contact your local representative for a comprehensive list.
